

Third Board Meeting of the SNCC Legacy Project. October 2011 at Princeton University.

The third Board meeting of the SNCC Legacy Project was held October 14-15, 2011 at Princeton University in Princeton, NJ, where we were the guests of the Center for African-American Studies.

SNCC Legacy Project Board at Princeton University, October 15, 2011:

Standing from left to right: Ben Moynihan, Geri Augusto, Bob Moses, Sharlene Kranz, Courtland Cox, Judy Richardson, Joyce Ladner, Ivanhoe Donaldson, Charles Cobb, Maisha Moses, Bruce Hartford, Kim Johnson.

Seated from left to right: Charles McDew, Charles Sherrod, Bernice Johnson Reagon, Connie Curry, Cynthia Palmer

The Board heard a report from California Newsreel about the sales of the 50th Anniversary Conference DVD. The Board discussed fundraising efforts with several foundations, and suggestions for future fundraising.

The working groups presented reports of their activities.

The SNCCLegacyProject.org website is on-line.

The Board discussed a contract with the Berkeley School of Law to explore intellectual property rights for SNCC material. The Board discussed the future of COFO materials currently stored in Jackson, MS.

The next Board meeting is scheduled for March, 2012 in Jackson, MS at Jackson State University.

Minutes summarized by Sharlene Kranz

More photos from the October, 2011 Board meeting:

